

FINE ART PORTRAITS

Jerry Siegel is an artist with a passion for photographing people. He has been an advertising and corporate photographer for the past 19 years. During that time, he has had the good fortune to shoot a variety of subjects. From Colin Powell and Jimmy Carter, to top CEOs, Jerry has photographed many unique individuals. And his natural abilities with children have been put to the test shooting for years with The Boys & Girls Clubs of America and Girls First.

When you have a portrait sitting with Jerry, you are not only getting his passion and his many years of experience, but you are also getting the best and the newest technology. All of Jerry's portraits are shot digitally for total control. Starting with the lighting of the subject, through the sitting and all finishing, Jerry handles all aspects of your portrait himself. Jerry is an expert at all aspects of finishing from image retouching to color management. Jerry's prints are all archival giclee prints on Somerset Velvet acid free papers.
